of life that comes after it. Prayer:

Jesus, you were a part of creation that brought life. And then in your death, our life is made complete. May we embrace the seasons of our lives and give your glory through each stage.

~~Life After Death—Daily Devotional~~
Death, as we saw yesterday, may bring an end to our earthly suffering, but it does not represent the end of the Christian's blessed communion with the Lord. After death, in fact, we enjoy an intimacy with God that is far deeper than we can ever experience in this life because in heaven we will see Him face to face (1 Cor. 13:12).

Spiritual death has nothing to do with the physical body and everything to do with the soul. It is the separation of a sinful soul from a holy God. In Romans 6:23, Paul describes it this way: "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." Clearly, he is not referring to physical death and life.

Death?—David ...~~

David said that there is an answer to death, there is a hope beyond death. That hope is centered in the risen Christ. Paul wrote that to be “absent from the body” is to be “present with the Lord.”. So the fear of death is removed. Watch: Billy Graham preaches how to be ready for Heaven.

~~Billy Graham Daily Devotion: Hope
Beyond Death~~

The Bible doesn't say that anywhere. In fact, Jesus taught the exact opposite. In Matthew 5:4, he says, “God blesses those who mourn, for they will be comforted” (NLT). It's okay to grieve. When people are Christians, we know they will go on to Heaven, so we need not grieve like the

Even though false conceptions about life after death abound, by hoping for an afterlife, men affirm with Scripture that without a final judgment, life is meaningless and ethics are impossible. Those apart from Christ falsely hope that they will enter into paradise. However, Christians can be sure that they will enter glory at their death.
