Before the students begin reading, introduce the text. You might introduce new concepts or vocabulary words, give a brief synopsis of the book, call attention to a new phonics pattern, have your learners do a picture walk or make predictions, and/or set a purpose for reading. During Reading Activities. After you introduce the text, students will read it in its entirety - on their own.

Guided reading is an approach used by teachers to meet the various instructional needs of all students in the classroom. The goal of guided reading is not to teach a selected book, but to teach students reading strategies they can apply to all books. My guided reading lessons allow me to work with small groups of students at similar levels of development.
